

Administration

Job Descriptions

The Superintendent is responsible for the development and maintenance of a current and comprehensive set of job descriptions for all approved administrative and supervisory positions to promote and strengthen efficiency and economy in staff operations.