

INSTRUCTIONAL MATERIALS AVAILABILITY AND STUDENT RESPONSIBILITY

To the extent that budgetary resources permit, it is the intent of the Newtown school system to provide a basic formal education that will include those materials necessary for instruction without the student or parents having to spend funds of their own.

Fees to cover costs for those materials used in instructional activities where the item or product becomes the property of the student may be authorized.

Reference:CGS 10-228

Adopted 1/22/80

Modified 10/10/95